CURRENT EVENTS.

Since the adjournment of Congress, but little has occurred of interest.

The Fenians are trying to compromise and settle their difficulties. The President is relieving his Provisional Governors as speedily as possible and thus going to the fullest stretch of his authority to bring the ex-rebel States into the Union. The report made to him by Carl Shurz whom he sent to investigate the absolute condition of the South, proves but little wisdom on the part of the President in his indecent haste to admit the rebel States into full fellowship. Shurz believes in making haste slowly. He says that immediately after Lee's surrender, the South would have received any conditions without a murmur, but since the President has begun to extend them clemency and parley with them, they have grown bold and do not yield so readily an acquiescence to the results of the war. He thinks that the withdrawal of the Federal power will be fatal to the freedmen, and security and order. He favors the ballot for the negro. The cattle disease in England is on the increase and attended with great mortality. It really looks as if Maximilian is about to vacate his unlawful dominions—uneasy the head that wears a crown. The number of patents issued in 1865 is 6,000, 1,000 over any previous year. The State Teachers' Association has been in session at Battle Creek the present week. —Gold 145-1/2.

WASHTENAW CO. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

At the annual meeting of the Washtenaw County Agricultural and Horticultural Society, held in this city, on Tuesday last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Christmas Festivities.
The Baptist friends had a jubilant time at Follett Hall. There was an overflow of all the essentials and parties.
Cakes and pies were plenty, and of raisins and especially of candies not a few. The little folks as to numbers were fully up to the supply. It was a merry time. What the young folks could not stow away, the old folks made an attack on, and their appetite being laid out, the poor got the rest.
So many were blessed. Just as it should be.

The Christmas tree of the M. E.
Church was a success. The committee spared no pains to make the affair pass off creditably. $100 secured by the ladies oyster supper was expended in gifts for the trees. Services opened with singing by the choir. The pastor cordially welcomed the children in some happy remarks, and wished a merry Christmas to all. From the gallery where we sat the trees presented a beautiful appearance, and much credit is due the ladies for their tasteful arrangement. There were two trees one for infant class and one for the larger pupils and teachers. About two hours were occupied in divesting the trees of their choice fruit, interspersed with merry gleeful intervals. Gifts were distributed from the infant class to the pastor. Each child had a pair of lace boots full of candy. Prof. Miller was presented with a copy of poems.
A silver gilt goblet to Mr.
Washburne, from the choir. A silver cake basket to Rev. Mrs. Hickey, from the ladies. A fur collar and gloves to Rev. Mr. Hickey, from the Bible class.
The services closed with singing and the benediction.

Gough's Lecture.
A week from Monday evening next, Jan. 8th, Gough gives his Temperance Lecture at Hewitt Hall. A larger number than ever before on a similar occasion have purchased tickets. And yet there is room. A word to our friends in the country. If in Massachusetts they get up excursion trains and go 30 miles to hear Gough lecture on Temperance, why cannot you take your carriages and come from ten to fifteen miles? Many a brainless young man with his girl will go much further to attend a New Year's ball.— Let our thinking young men and women in the country come and hear the great orator of the country. And Fathers and Mothers will be the gainers if they come along too.

The Gift Sale.
The great excitement of the week is the Gift Sale now in progress at J. O.
Cross & Co.'s. Citizens and farmers, everybody and everybody's wife, are flocking there to do their winter trading in order to obtain a Holiday gift.
Two valuable sets of furs have already been drawn, together with several sets of less value, Gents fur sets, six dollar shawls, Balmoral skirts, etc. With every $5 worth of goods the purchaser receives as a gift, some article worth from 50 cents to 50 dollars. This may seem strange but the establishment though selling as cheap as any in the city, can easily afford it out of the profits from the numerous sales. We understand they intend continuing the sale for sixty days, during which time their stock will be constantly renewed.

Election.
At the recent election after a warmly contested canvass Mr. D. B. Rorison was elected President of the Union School Lyceum over Mr. Charles Baldwin by 16 majority. The rest of the names on the same ticket were elected. There seems to be a split in the Union party and Mr. R. seems to head the majority (radical) faction. We trust that it is not the forerunner of a split in the great Union party of the country. If unfortunately so, may the radical wing also prevail.

Vacation.
The Holidays have become a speciality. The boys and girls in our schools are making the most of them.
It is fitting that the vacation should embrace these days. The 8th day of January the pupils from abroad will return, reinvigorated for the active duties of the next term, and all will have more keenly whetted appetites for their studies.

cession Document.
A curious document has been laid on our table. A fac simile copy of the South Carolina ordinance of secession, with the names in autograph of the signers. The original scroll of "treason" was found in the house of Dr.
Lamb Secretary of State. Copies are for sale at the News Office in this city, or of S. C. Watson, corner of Beaubien St. and Jefferson Avenue, Detroit.

ganized in Ypsilanti on the 11th inst.,

Mr. John French.
Of Oakville was seriously injured last Saturday evening at Dentonville, by jumping off the cars when in motion. Not being aware that the train was in such rapid motion, he made the fatal jump. His shoulder blade is broken and it is feared he is injured internally. Though as yet unable to speak, he is considered convalescent. Mr.
French is an estimable citizen.

A Murderer.
Mrs. Haviland formerly Mrs. Leonard of this city, poisoned at Battle-creek three of her children. A Dr.
Baker seems to be mixed up with the matter, and spiritualism seems to have given inspiration to the hellish deed, or it was a cloak to cover their wickedness. The three murdered little children were brought here to be buried.
The funeral services were performed by Rev. Mr. Breed at the Quaker School House south. It was a sad sight to see the little ones, look plump and full, as if taken away in the midst of rosy health, which was the fact.

Watch Meeting.
The regular preaching service at 7 o'clock at the M. E. Church is deferred until half past 8 o'clock. The services will continue till 12. The members of other churches are cordially invited to participate.

ANOTHER ENGAGEMENT!
While the attention of the enemy is fully engaged by Grant, the attention of the general public is no less engaged by CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE, which is accomplishing wonders in the way of beautifying heads that are sickly, or capricious nature has disfigured with unsightly hues. Milton says truly that "Peace hath its victories no less renowned than war."

Manufactured by J. Cristadoro, No. 6 Astor House, New York. Sold by all druggists, applied by all hair dressers. dec gans. The Troches are recommended and prescribed by physicians, and have had testimonials from eminent men throughout the country.— Being an article of true merit, each year finds
